The mission of the non for profit organization Art in All of Us (AiA) is to promote tolerance and cultural exchanges in schools using Art as a communication tool. AiA supports also the 8 UNITED NATIONS Millennium Development Goals which objectives are to reduce poverty by 2015. Through this photo exhibition, you will be able to discover those Goals through the eyes of the Children.

After 5 years, 192 countries, 300 schools and the participation of 18400 children, Art in All of Us (AiA) is very proud to launch its World Art Book. This book presents the World seen through the Eyes and Rhymes of the Children. Each one of the 192 UN member countries is presented by a photo, a children poem and drawings and promote as such the child right to express.
